

Study at a university in the US

31 MARCH 2021 – 2 PM – 90 MIN – ZOOM

Are you thinking about spending some time studying in the US?

Do you wonder what options you might have?

Are you curious about how the prestigious Fulbright scholarship programs work?

Do you want to know about the visa process?

If you want you find the answers to these questions and more, join us for the online talk by representatives from the US Embassy in Prague and the Fulbright Czech Republic.

Registration: bit.ly/study-us

You will receive the link to the lecture on Zoom platform 2 days prior the event on your stated email address.

GUEST SPEAKERS :

Sonia Wettstein is a U.S. Diplomat currently posted to Prague, Czech Republic. She has also served in Freetown, Sierra Leone and Washington D.C. Prior to joining the Foreign Service, she worked for New York City government and for New York University.

Mgr. Mariel Tavakoli is the current EducationUSA Student Adviser at the Czech Fulbright Commission where she works with dozens of Czech students each year on all aspects of their US university applications for all levels of study. Mariel has worked in the field of international education for 7+ years with specialties in academic, language, test, and application preparation for university studies in the US, UK, France, and other English-language programs.

ON BEHALF OF THE ORGANIZERS :

Mgr. Kristýna Šejnohová, American Center U.S. Embassy Prague

Mgr. Zuzana Vašíčková, Language Centre, Faculty of Informatics MU
vasickova@fi.muni.cz